News around The Highlands

The elections were held, and the Annual meeting took place. We DID manage to get more than a quorum. 🤝

Four people put their names in to run for the Board and all 4 were elected – Gary Frommer, Bill Conner, Carol Hogge and CJ (Carol Jackson). The CPA audit was waived. The road work and raising the dues to $150/month did not pass.

However, the Board did vote to increase the dues 5% and then they passed a motion for the membership to add an additional $20/month that would be earmarked for the reserve fund. That was voted on my standing during the “for”, sitting down and then standing for the “against” votes. It passed, so the current monthly dues are now $130.

VOLUNTEERS

There is a constant need of volunteers. Lynda Frommer has agreed to head up the election committee, but we still need someone to take over the Newsletter. The majoring of volunteer tasks are done by the same handful of people. It would be really nice if others in the community that enjoy the labors of those few volunteers would take a turn and volunteer themselves.

Tai Chi classes are postponed until September. At that time, they will only resume if 3 or more sign up. To sign up, write your name on the back of the poster in the Clubhouse

How to Avoid Mixing Your Metaphors

It's not rocket surgery.

First, get all your ducks on the same page.

After all, you can't make an omelette
without breaking stride.

Be sure to watch what you write with a fine-tuned comb.

Check and re-check until the cows turn blue.
It's as easy as falling off a piece of cake.

Don't worry about opening up
a whole hill of beans:
you can always burn that bridge when you come to it,
if you follow where I'm coming from.

Concentrate! Keep your door closed and your enemies closer.
Finally, don't take the moral high horse:
if the metaphor fits, walk a mile in it.

Ever played quiet tennis? It's the same as regular tennis but without the racket.

PEOPLE who take care of chickens are literally chicken tenders.

DURING A GAME, a coach called one of his 7-year-old football players over and asked, "Do you understand what a team is?"

The boy nodded yes.

"Do you understand that what matters is whether we win or lose together as a team?"

The boy nodded yes.

"So," the coach continued, "I'm sure you know that when a penalty is called, you shouldn't argue, cuss or attack the referee. Do you understand?" Again the boy nodded.

He continued, "And when I take you out of the game so another boy gets a chance to play, it's not good sportsmanship to call your coach 'a worthless idiot,' is it?"

Again the boy nodded.

"Good," the coach said. "Now go over there and explain all that to your parents."

MY WIFE SAYS romance is better on vacation. I wish she hadn't told me via postcard.

HOPING FOR A SUMMER JOB, an 18-year-old set up interviews at several day-care centers. At one meeting she sat down on one of the kiddie seats - no simple task for most people. The interview went well, and at the end, the center director asked, "Can you give me one good reason we should hire you?"

"Because I fit in the chairs."

She got the job.

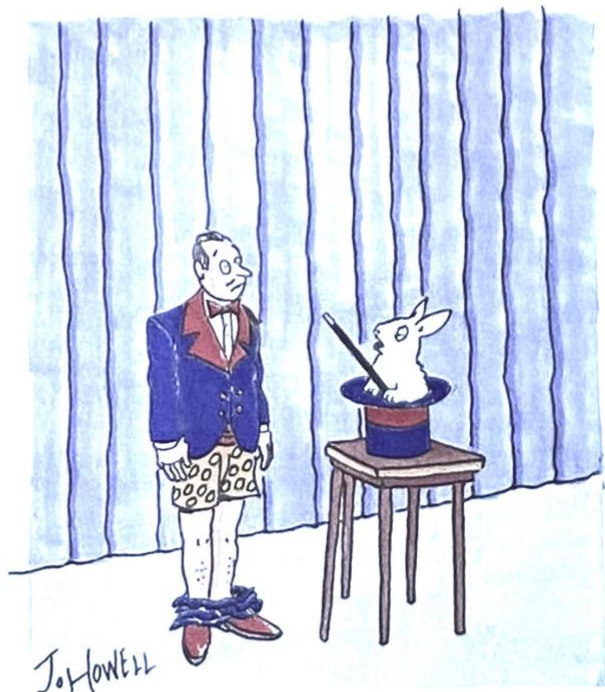

WHY WAS MUSIC coming from the printer? The paper was jamming.

MY HUSBAND likes to play this game called "yell from four rooms away," then gets upset when I can't hear him.

"I HATE how every 'Mission Impossible' movie ends with the same stupid twist where the mission turns out to be possible." - James Etchison

"Gary here is the brains of the operation. Emily is the heart of the company. Lewis is ... I dunno, the appendix? Not strictly necessary, but it's just easier not to get rid of him."

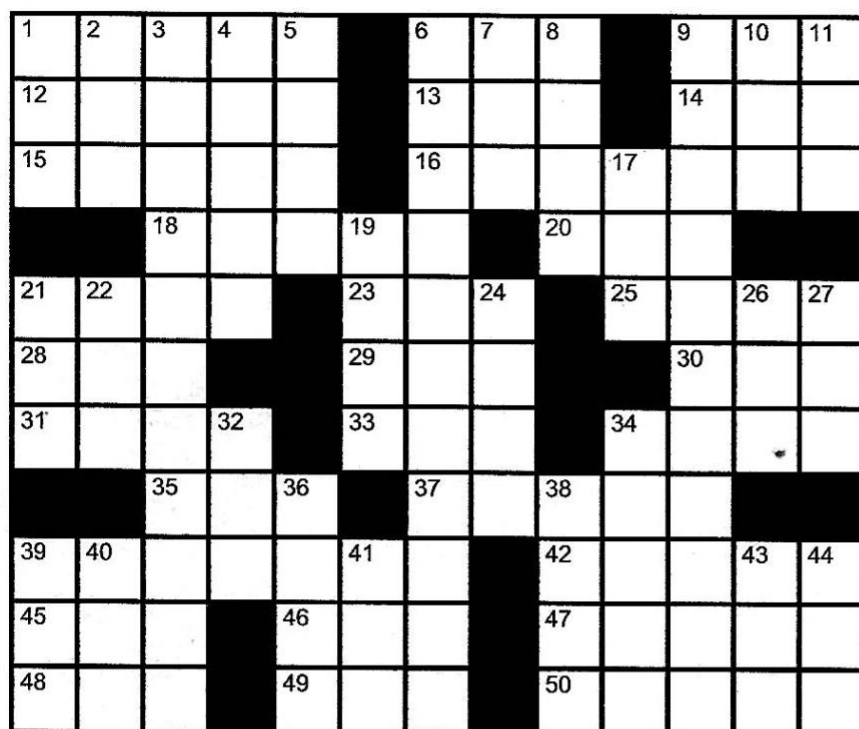

"How about that? The audience found my trick much more amusing than you pulling me out of this hat."

"Cocoa Puffs ... and leave the box."
